

Adam s. of William del Grene, from Thomas s. of Elias de Donecastre, and Adam le Smyth, 6^d

John le Harpur and Thomas le Stobber, from one another; 3^d and 6^d respectively.

Osset. Agnes d. of Henry, from Eva, serving-maid of Henry; 12^d

Thomas s. of William, from Robert Passemer; 12^d

Hugh Wildbor, from Henry his brother, 6^d

Robert Wyldbor, from Robert Wyse, 6^d

John Souter, from Magot de Herthill, 3^d

John Bynne stole a horse from John Walker, and an other from Thomas Gates at Deuesbury.

Thorns. William s. of Elias de Thornes, drew blood from William Malyn; 6^d, and raised the hue without cause on Robert Malynson; 3^d

Stanneley. John s. of John Dade, drew blood from John del Bothem, and from his wife, and impleaded him in Court Christian, 18^d

Walter Gunne, the lord's villein bought a house at Ouchethorp from John del Dale, villein, and sold it to Thomas Tanner, who uprooted it and carried it out of the lord's bondage. Walter is fined 12^d

Hugh de Stanneley, 3^d for appropriating a piece of the common round his close at Stanneley.

John s. of Henry de Whittyngton, killed John Whitheved with a knife in the great wood at Wakefeld.

Wakefeld. Robert le Wright and William his son, were destroying the king's highway at Sherrefforth, by trenches so that carts could not get along; 12^d

William de Burdeux, 6^d and Henry Raynald, 2^d for blocking up the King's highway in le Westgate.

Philip Damysel and Thomas Mauger, 6^d each for the same.

Thornes. John Bulnais drew blood from William his brother; 12^d

Wakefeld. William Wyles, clerk, made a trench close by John Pollard's house, in the public footway; 6^d

John de Sandale drew blood from William s. of Richard Clerk; 12^d

John Spicer, from Ellen d. of Trik; 12^d

Cecilia de Sandale housed offenders against the assize; 6^d

The town of Wakefeld, 2^s for not presenting that a path had been made by a cart on the east of the town, at the end of a lane leading to the old park, along the lands of John s. of Robert, and William Cussyng, and others.—Also 12^d for not presenting a path had been made through the grass of the lord's tenants, between Wakefeld and the great park.

Christian de la Halle of Sandale; Alice wife of Adam Leulyng & Magota wife of Thomas Clerk, 2^d each for weak ale.

Stanneley. Nicholas de Bateley; Emma d. of Robert s. of Walter; & the wives of Richard Pescy & Robert le Leper, 2^d each, for brewing and not sending for the tasters.

Bailiff. Agnes de Coupland to be summoned again to answer William le Badger for debt.

Sandale. John Payn to be summoned again to answer John Brand for debt.

Horbiry. Robert Clerk of Horbiry & Elias de Horbiry to be summoned again to answer John de Geirgrave respecting an agreement.

Sourby. John s. of Thomas de Skircok, to be summoned to answer Thomas de Totehill for debt.

Michael Sourmilk to be summoned to answer the same.

Holne. A stray sow sold to Adam de Holne for 12^d. Afterwards came William Ay & claimed the said sow "three-handed," & it was delivered to him.

Bailiff. John de Grenegate, who was summoned to come before the Steward on an inquisition on sundry customs regarding the millers & the mills at Wakefeld, 12^d for not coming.

Adam de Castilforth, John Hobbesson, Thomas Filcok, Robert Sword & Henry le Badger; William Filche, Ralph Malleson, Thomas Gardiner, John de Wolveley, John Wilcok, Henry le Smith del Hagh, John Clement, William Glover, Robert Nelot, John s. of Hugh le Chapman, & Henry Bul, 4^d each for the same.

Total of this Court—40^s 9^d. And for strays, 3^s

Bailiff, 28^s 4^d

Sourby, 3^d And for a stray, 3^s

Stanley, 6^s 4^d

Holne, 4^d

Horbiry, 12^d

Sandale, 6^d

Rastrik, 8^d

Hiperum, 40^d

HALMOTE held at Birtoun on Tuesday after St. Andrew's day (Nov. 30) 4 Edw. III [1330].

Holne. Thomas Fernoule surrenders a messuage & 12½ acres in Foulestoun, demised to John Fernoule his son; to hold, according &c. Entry, 6^s 8^d.

Thomas s. of Thomas Drabil, gives 13^s 4^d as a heriot on a messuage & 26 acres lying in Shaghley & the vill of Wolvedale, the latter being new land, after the death of his father whose heir he is. Thomas is 6 months of age; the land is meanwhile committed to the custody of Margery, his mother.